TOS+H EXPO postponed

Messe Düsseldorf GmbH and its local partner Tezulaş Fuar are postponing the TOS+H EXPO 2020 in Istanbul. In close coordination with all partners involved, the company will promptly discuss an alternative date for the fourth edition of the leading trade fair for Turkish Occupational Safety and Health in order to guarantee planning can reliably proceed.

Due to the dynamic developments of the corona pandemic and by following the decree by the Turkish government to postpone all events, the TOS+H EXPO 2020 will not take place in July as planned. Messe Düsseldorf and Tezulaş Fuar have taken the decision in close coordination and in-depth dialogue with the Turkish Ministry of Family, Labor and Social Services and all partners.

„We are sure that it is in the best interest of all our exhibitors, visitors and staff. The health and safety of all stakeholders takes priority“, says Werner M. Dornscheidt, CEO of Messe Düsseldorf GmbH. „We are taking immediate steps to provide all parties with the required support necessary.“ By postponing the fourth edition of the TOS+H EXPO, Messe Düsseldorf is following the recommendation of the crisis management team of the Turkish Ministry of Health and the German Federal Government taking into account the principles of the Robert Koch Institute when assessing the risk of major events. Based on this recommendation and the recent significant increase in the number of infected persons, including in Europe, Messe Düsseldorf and its partners have jointly reassessed the situation.
